DETAILED ACTION

1. It would be of great assistance to the Office if all incoming papers pertaining to a filed application carried the following items:

1. Application number (checked for accuracy, including series code and serial no.).
2. Group art unit number (copied from most recent Office communication).
3. Filing date.
4. Name of the examiner who prepared the most recent Office action.
5. Title of invention.
6. Confirmation number (See MPEP § 503).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 12-15,17,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cotton et al. (5,577,075)

Consider claims 12-15,17 and 19 as claimed. Cotton discloses a system for phase aligning first timing signal with the second timing signal comprising: a selection unit (75,82) coupled to a plurality of clocks (timing sources); a detection means (115,84) coupled to the selection unit for detecting a failure in the timing signal and causing the selection unit to switch to another timing source (clock); a unit (95) coupled to the selection unit for comparing the phase of the first timing signal (output from 82) after switching to the phase of the second timing signal (output from 106), wherein the unit introduces gradual phase alterations to the second timing signal. The detection means comprises: an alarm activity unit coupled to the timing for detecting a failure in any one of the timing (clocks) and a control unit coupled to the alarm unit and the selection unit for determining and instructing the selection unit to switch to another timing (clock) (115,84). The system further comprises an internal timing unit (25a,GND). The unit comprises a phase detection unit coupled to the selection unit (104); a phase adjuster unit coupled to the phase detection unit (106); a low pass filter coupled to the phase detection unit (102) and an oscillator coupled to the low pass filter (100). The system of Cotton also discloses a generator unit (144) coupled to the unit (95) to generate at least one out signal. (See fig. 4 and col.9, line 40 to col.11, line 57)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4 The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5 Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cotton. As discussed above cotton discloses all the subject matters described above. Cotton differs from the claimed invention in that he is silent about the frequency of first timing signal. However, such particular frequency would have been an obvious design choice.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 2637

6 Claims 1-10 are allowed.

7 Claims 16 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8 Applicant's arguments filed 7/11/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Cotton does not suggest or teach a unit which receives a signal from the detection unit. However examiner disagree with applicant's conclusion because Cotton does show a unit receiving a signal from the detection unit. (See col. 13, lines 37-52, col.14, lines 14-29) after a detection of a clock failure an ALERT status is transmitted to the system. The unit is part of the system.
